(Objective)

Article 1 This Policy prescribes matters necessary for the organization and operation of Centers for Key Interdisciplinary Research (hereinafter referred to as a “Center”), on the basis of the provisions of Article 10 (2) of the Regulations on the Organization for the Promotion and Support of Research Activities at Tohoku University (Rule No. 34 of 2017; hereinafter referred to as the “Regulations”).

(Centers)

Article 2 The following Centers shall be established in the Organization for the Promotion and Support of Research Activities:

- (i) Interdisciplinary Studies of Novel Values on Energy for Sustainable Development Society;
- (ii) Aerospace Interdisciplinary Research Center;
- (iii) Tohoku University Transdisciplinary Research Initiative for Plastic Smart;
- (iv) Tohoku Quantum Alliance;
- (v) System Design of Inclusive Society with Infectious Diseases;
- (vi) Advanced Imaging and Modeling Center for Soft-materials;
- (vii) Center for Heterogeneous Quantum/Material Fusion Technologies; and
- (viii) Tohoku University Quantum Applications Research and Development.

(Manager)

Article 3 A manager shall be appointed for each Center.

(Application and Accreditation)

Article 4 The procedure for application for the establishment of, and the procedure for approval of, a Center shall be prescribed separately.

(Activity Report)

Article 5 (1) The Centers prescribed in Article 2 shall report their activity statuses to the General Manager of the Promotion Office for Center for Key Interdisciplinary Research (hereinafter referred to as the “Office Manager”) at the end of each fiscal year by using Supplementary Form No. 1.

(2) Upon receiving a report as prescribed in the preceding paragraph, the Office Manager shall check the details of it, and report such details on such occasions as meetings of the steering committee of the Organization for the Promotion and Support of Research Activities.

(Establishment Term)

Article 6 The term of establishment of a Center shall be within five years.

(Assistance)

Article 7 In cases where the Office Manager finds it necessary with regard to the activities of the Centers prescribed in Article 2, the Organization shall provide assistance for such activities, which includes the provision of necessary expenses.

(Miscellaneous Provisions)

Article 8 In addition to the provisions prescribed in this Policy, other matters necessary for the organization and operation of any of the Centers described in Article 2 shall be prescribed by the department to which the manager of the Center concerned belongs.
